

BET HAVARIM NOTES PASSOVER SEDER PLANNED

By Mel Shindler

Cantorial Soloist Hanita Margulies Blair will lead Bet Havarim's March 20th Shabbat Worship Service beginning at 7:30 PM in the Social Hall of St. David's Church in Dewitt. Following the Shabbat Service an Oneg Shabbat reception will be held. Bet Havarim cordially invites all members of the community to attend.

Planning is underway for Bet Havarim's fifth annual Community Passover Seder to be held the first night of Passover, Wednesday, April 8th beginning at 5:00 PM with a reception.

"We received a gracious invitation from Rev. William Redfield and his congregation to conduct our Seder in the social hall of Trinity Episcopal Church in Fayetteville and our Seder committee has accepted," said Marty Morganstein, BH committee member. There will be a charge to attend and further details will be announced in a future edition of the Jewish Observer. Prepaid reservations are requested by March 31st. For information and reservations phone Helen Marcum at 637-4647 or by email hrm4910@aol.com.

Bet Havarim will be a co-sponsor along with area Synagogues and Agencies on the weekend of March 27, 28 and 29 when Yitzhak Buxbaum pays a visit to Syracuse and will be serving as Community Scholar in Residence.

(2)

“We are happy to be able to honor our good friend and Inspirational Story Teller, Jim Brule, as the community welcomes Yitzhak Buxbaum who will be accompanied by his wife, Carole Forman, an accomplished teacher, story teller and dramatist,” said Morganstein, “Jim has been our guest on numerous occasions and was our guest at our February Shabbat service and Bet Havarim is most happy to participate.” Events are being coordinated by the Jewish Community Center. Jim Brule recently completed a two-year program of study and the school led by Yitzhak Buxbaum in New York and is now an ordained Maggid, Jewish Inspirational Story Teller.

St. David’s Episcopal Church is located on Jamar Drive in Dewitt where off-street parking is available. The church building is handicapped accessible.

For information visit Bet Havarim’s website at www.bethavarimsyr.org.
Inquiries may also be made by phoning Marty Morganstein at 637-5390 or Mel Shindler at 478-6856. Email inquires may be made at info@bethavarim.org.

#####