

Bet Havarim Announces May Service To be Held at Trinity Church

By Mel Shindler

Bet Havarim's May 15th Shabbat Worship Service will be conducted at Trinity Episcopal Church in Fayetteville. The service will begin at 7:30PM with an Oneg Shabbat Reception to follow the service. BH's Cantorial Sololist, Hanita Margulies Blair, will lead the service assisted by members of Bet Havarim's Shabbat Committee.

In announcing the change of location for the May 15th Shabbat Service, committee member Marty Morganstein said, "due to the 39th annual 'Celebration of the Arts' festival at St. David's Church in May, we were invited by Rector William Redfield of Trinity Church to conduct our May service at Trinity and we accepted his gracious invitation", we certainly encourage everyone to view the "Celebration of the Arts" festival at St. David's which provides a showcase for the creativity of local visual and performing artists".

Bet Havarim's Passover Seder was conducted on Wednesday evening, April 8th, at Trinity Church and saw nearly 60 people in attendance enjoying BH's 5th annual Passover Seder. "Our Seder was enjoyed by everyone attending", said Jeff Fuchs who led the Seder Service, adding, "we could not have been more grateful for the wonderful comments we received from all attending and having most everyone participate in our Seder Service was certainly one of the highlights of the evening". Commenting on the Seder, committee member Mel Shindler said, "we were so grateful to our wonderful friends at Trinity Church for the use of their Social Hall, to Sonja Kuhn for catering a magnificent reception and dinner, and to everyone who attended and participated to make this Seder so enjoyable".

Trinity Episcopal Church is located at 106 Chapel Street, Corner of East Genesee Street in Fayetteville, across from the "Hess Gasoline Station" and "Hullar's Restaurant." Off-street parking is available in the town lot directly across from the side entrance to the Social Hall where the service will be conducted. Directions to Trinity may be obtained by phoning the church office at 637-9872.

Trinity Church is handicapped accessible.
