

Bet Havarim

For Immediate Release: 7/29/09

By Delia Temes

On Friday, August 21 Bet Havarim's Cantorial Soloist Hanita Margulies Blair will lead a service featuring music created especially for Sabbath worship. She will be joined by congregant and musician April Rando in an outdoor service (weather permitting). A similar service in July was enhanced by guest musicians Mark and Cheryl Wolfe; the congregation was encouraged to participate through the use of drums and tambourines, providing a lively and spiritual Shabbat experience.

That evening will also be the naming ceremony of Daniel Alan Goodman, grandson of Frann and Harvey Albert of Fayetteville, and Joyce Goodman of Tulsa, OK. Daniel and his parents Nikki and Walter Goodman reside in Herndon, VA. In honor of their grandson's naming, the Albert's are hosting the Oneg Shabbat following the service.

Bet Havarim's services are held the third Friday of every month at St. David's Church on Jamar Drive in Dewitt. Off-street parking is available and the Social Hall is handicapped accessible.

For more information, visit www.bethavarimsyr.org, email info@bethavarim.org, or call Marty Morganstein (637-5390) or Mel Shindler (478-6856).